

Prayer for God's Purpose

Read Ezek 16:7-14 first

Thank you Father for this beautiful picture of Your magnificent and extravagant love for Your people. Thank you that even in our ugliness You saw great beauty in us and chose to spread Your wings of love over us. Thank you for binding Yourself to us, and despite the terrible cost, making ample provision to cover our nakedness, to wash us in pure water, and anoint us with Your Holy oil. Thank you for clothing us with the priceless garments of salvation and the robes of righteousness. Thank you for coming to dwell within us by Your Holy Spirit and filling us with Your joy and peace that surpasses understanding. Thank you also for the staggering truth that we are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ. Lord we know that You long to manifest Your radiant beauty and splendor, and Your extravagant love, in and through us. We choose to set our eyes on You and submit to You, so that day by day more of You may be revealed in us. We love You Lord. Amen.
